Jose Reyes

4550 Connecticut Ave. #709
Washington, DC 20008

Phone: 202-509-4287
Email: jtreyes0@gmail.com

Profile

Years of experience providing project management and operational support for quality improvement projects in non-profit, medical associations. Passion for improving the quality of healthcare through health informatics and policy. Excellent written and verbal communication skills and adaptability to new tasks and duties.

Experience

American Society of Nuclear Cardiology, Fairfax, VA
Specialist, Quality Improvement Projects (full-time), June 2017 - present
-Provide project management to the ImageGuide Registry, a clinical data registry for non-invasive cardiac imaging.
-Generate outcomes report from submitted clinical data from nuclear cardiology labs.
-Queries data registry to answer research questions and provide site registration updates to committee members.
-Develop Quality Measures from analysis of clinical data and medical literature to identify opportunities for improvement.
-Manage annual Qualified Clinical Data Registry self-nomination process and quality measure development through the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid.
-Collaborate with regulatory affairs staff to keep abreast of and implement pertinent regulatory changes and prepare comments on QPP proposed rules.
-Work with marketing and communications staff to recruit ImageGuide Registry participants and develop content for web and marketing collateral.
-Facilitate and maintain relationships with all software vendors and registry partners.

American College of Radiology, Reston, VA
Accreditation and Registries Associate (full-time), September 2014- June 2017
-Provide operational support for the American College of Radiology's accreditation programs and The National Radiology Data Registry.
-Assist facilities, physicians, and physician groups in the registration process for the National Radiology Data Registry and the enrollment process for using our registry as a QCDR to meet PQRS and MIPS reporting requirements.
-Identify common errors and analyze customer experiences to develop improvements to the registration process, website design, and application process to ensure maximum efficiency and user friendliness.

Education

Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY
Master of Science in Applied Data Science, to be completed 2021

George Mason University, Fairfax, VA
Bachelor of Science in neuroscience, 2013
Graduated magna cum laude.